3. Proper documentation to support the expenditure must be sent to the Fiscal Officer prior to the receipt of the monthly statement.
 - a. Proper documentation is to include:
 - i. Itemized paid receipt indicating the amount paid, the vendor, and an itemized description of purchase.
 - ii. In the case of books, subscriptions or similar types of orders, a copy of the order form or document, and the packing slip or other receiving document.

 - b. Examples of documentation not allowed:
 - i. Non-itemized cash register receipts

4. The Library is exempt from sales tax, and all reasonable efforts should be made to ensure that sales tax is not charged by vendors in connection with purchases made via credit card. A tax exemption certificate is available in the Fiscal Officer's office. In some cases, if you merely mention to the vendor that the purchase is tax exempt, no sales tax will be charged.

Safekeeping. You are responsible for the safekeeping of the credit card. You shall not permit anyone else to use the credit card or disclose to anyone (other than the vendor/merchant in connection with a purchase) the card account number, CVV, or other pertinent account information.

Unauthorized Use. If you become aware of any unauthorized or fraudulent use of the credit card, or if the credit card is lost or stolen, you must immediately report same to the Fiscal Officer and Compliance Officer.

No Right to Credit Card. The credit card is issued to you on a temporary basis, and remains the sole property of the financial institution from which it was issued. The right to use the credit card may be revoked at any time without notice by the issuing financial institution or by the Library’s Fiscal Officer or Executive Director. You must immediately return the credit card to the Library upon termination of your employment with the Library or in the event of a change in your position/title.
